Second Collection: This weekend's special second collection is for Sick and Retired Priests.

Post COVID-19 we continue our journey to what will be our new normality with care for ourselves and each other. Accordingly, we will not pass the Collection Basket from hand to hand during Mass at the Preparation of the Gifts (and for Second Collections to avoid interrupting everyone's Prayer of Thanksgiving after Communion). So the Basket for the Main Offertory Collection will be in the Porch as you enter and the Basket for the various Second Collections - which will be named - will be on the Altar Rail as you leave. Many of you now support the Parish by Standing Order or Electronically (for which Fr. Michael is most grateful) though for many causes the physical collection is their only opportunity for you to offer your financial support. Please continue to offer these causes your support. (If you forget the Offertory Collection on the way in, please leave your donation beside the Second Collection Basket as you leave). Thank you!

Live Streaming: All Masses are Live Streamed and can be viewed on our YouTube Channel. Weekday Masses are available for up to 12 hours after they are finished "live". Sunday Vigil and Sunday Morning Masses will also be uploaded to view later. Please feel free to stay at home if you are anxious about mixing with others. There is still no obligation to attend Mass and our own safety and that of others is paramount.

The Scottish Catholic Calendar is now available priced £3.20.

Tuesday Tea: This will start back after 10.00am Mass on Tuesday, 1st February.

Thursday Evening Mass: There will be no Exposition or Benediction on Thursday evening after 6.00pm Mass. Fr. Michael will be attending the reception of the remains of Fr. Benny O'Keefe. He cannot attend the funeral on Friday as he has a funeral in St. Conval's.

RCIA: Together with other local Parishes we are going to begin this year's experience of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) the way in which the Church receives new adult members whether Baptised in another Christian Tradition or Unbaptised. If you have been thinking about becoming a Catholic this is the moment to have a word with Fr. Michael to begin the process (which leads to Easter!).

In The House Porch there are copies of the Bulletin, Census Forms and Standing Order Forms. If you would like a copy of the Bulletin or any of these forms, but cannot get out to collect them, please email the Parish with your address and you can have them delivered by email or by hand.

Collection Envelopes: If any parishioners would like to join the Gift Aid Scheme, sealed sterile Gift Aid Packs - which are all the same - containing a box of envelopes, a Gift Aid Declaration (GAD) Form, a Standing Order Form, a Thank You Letter and Statement of Account are available in the House Porch. Please take the sealed sterile pack home with you. The Gift Aid Declaration (GAD) Form should then be completed and the signed GAD Form posted in the Parish House.

The Diocese has been advised that we should maintain our Covid safety restrictions and you will now notice that many other venues have reintroduced the restrictions which we had been maintaining. Please continue to sanitise on entry and exit, please wear a face-covering indoors and please continue to observe the 'One Way System'. Social distancing rules have been relaxed to one metre and we have no restrictions to numbers at Mass apart from that. We are still required to have a record of who is present for the 'Track and Trace' System to contact us if someone else present tests positive.

For entering and leaving the Church, please remember that it is important to maintain social distance of at least one metre so bunching up coming in or going out is unwise. Please follow the directions of the Stewards. The Stewards have been brave and generous with their time for many months now and it is appropriate that they should be allowed to attend Mass as well as everyone else. It would be generous of you to come in good time to register allowing us to begin Mass on schedule.

We are using the same sign up lists for Masses week to week. If you were at Mass any time last week you will be on the list for that day this week, next week and so on, so there is no need to sign up every week. If your name is not on the sign up list for a specific Mass, you can either book in as normal, OR scan our unique QR Code on your phone as you enter - laminated posters with the QR Code are in the Entrance Porch - please let the Stewards know your preferred method of registration. Please also pass the word that we are now fully open and able to welcome all who wish to come!

We will continue to ventilate the Church well. The Procession for Holy Communion will be directed by the Stewards and we will come forward to receive Holy Communion row by row as they direct, please come forward by the middle aisle and return to your seat by the side aisles. Please bear in mind that the current strain of the virus is highly contagious and very easily transmissible and act with generosity and consideration to those around you. SYNOD 2023 - Responses Required: Building on the guiding principles of his papacy, Pope Francis has invited Catholics both in the mainstream of church life and on the margins to express their dreams, ideas and concerns in preparation for the Synod of Bishops in 2023. The Pope's invitation to discern a path forward for the church stems from his belief that the Holy Spirit inspires all members to be missionary disciples, sharing core Christian beliefs by going out to the world. The Diocese wants to hear YOUR views, and a consultation document with questions that may help direct your response can be found on the Diocesan website: <http://www.rcdop.org.uk/> Please send any responses to: synod23@rcdop.org.uk before 8th April 2022 - all responses will be acknowledged.

Diocesan Priesthood: Thinking about Diocesan Priesthood in 2022? The Catholic Church in Scotland is now inviting enquiries from those considering applying for seminary. For more information, please contact Fr. John Morrison, tel. 0141 889 5056 or email: vocations@rcdop.org.uk
